THE BONEBRAKE CEMETERY

The Bonebrake Cemetery is located three miles south of Veedersburg on U. S. Highway #41, east side of road. Stephen Reed gave the ground for the original plot in 1832. First grave-Mathew Mantox-no stone. Later more land was given by Walter Marshall.

This is one of the oldest cemeteries in the Township. We have listed only the graves in the Old Part of the cemetery-all east of the driveway running north and south-starting the west side of the old church which was started in 1848. It was called Liberty Chapel, non-denominational-later it was named United Brethern-now abandoned.

THE ROCKFIELD CEMETERY

Rockfield Cemetery is located two and ha lf miles south of Veedersburg-one mile south of Highway #136, east of Sunny Inn. It was called the Coats Cemetery until June27, 1898, when the K of P Lodge purchased five acres-north of the old section and renamed it the Rockfield Cemetery. Only those graves south of the east and west road beginning at the small house on east side of cemetery are listed.
